Business or Commerce?

The Bachelor of Business is a cross-disciplinary degree which focuses on building skills applicable to a wide variety of business functions. The Bachelor of Commerce, on the other hand, is more quantitative in nature, developing your data and analytical skills, as well as focussing more on specific functions of a business (e.g. accounting or finance).

Bachelor of Business

UWA's Bachelor of Business is designed to provide you with relevant and practical skills across a range of areas, including management, marketing, applied business economics, business leadership, communication, innovation and entrepreneurship.
