

Study Abroad And Exchange

Your adventure starts at Swinburne Sarawak

For my semester abroad, I wanted a place where it is culturally different from Denmark, preferably a tropical country. So I chose Swinburne Sarawak as the application was comparatively easy. As it turns out, studying at Swinburne Sarawak was a perfect choice in more ways than one – with its cultural diversity, great food and beautiful national parks as the main highlight. It has been a good experience. I like my course and I've learnt a lot. My biggest surprise is how easy it is to connect with people – I didn't expect to find good friends in such a short period.

Kuching is renowned for its culture, cuisine and crafts.

Kuching and Sarawak

Sarawak is located on the island of Borneo and is separated from Peninsular Malaysia by the South China Sea.

Your first point of arrival in Malaysia will usually be Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) in Peninsular Malaysia. Some may enter the country via Kota Kinabalu International Airport in the northern Borneo state of Sabah. The peninsula and Sabah is linked to Sarawak by air. Kuching International Airport currently has direct international flights to/from Singapore and Pontianak in Kalimantan, Indonesia.

Annual festivals and events

Annually, Kuching hosts several international festivals, the most notable being the Rainforest World Music Festival. Other annual festivals are Borneo Jazz Festival in the northern city of Miri and the Borneo Cultural Festival held in Sibul.

In recent years, local and international interest has seen major cities in Sarawak emerge as a vibrant centre for arts, culture and food.

The door into nature

As one of the largest cities in the island of Borneo, Kuching offers a multitude of outdoor activities as well as untouched natural beauty across its vast land. For nature lovers, the city is a day trip to attractive beaches dotted with resorts. A number of national parks are also within easy reach of the city.

The blend of different cultures, ethnic tribes and languages adds depth and appeal to this wondrous city. Kuching has plenty to offer, especially as a tertiary education destination.

Make Sarawak your classroom!

With more than 29 indigenous and ethnic groups, Sarawak is the most culturally diverse state in Malaysia. Its communities are well-known for their friendliness and hospitality.

Immerse yourself in the colourful culture and festivities of the people, and savour exotic cuisine of the various communities. Explore the numerous national parks and natural wonders of Sarawak, and learn of its rich and diverse ecosystem.

The Kuching Waterfront is a 1km stretch of riverside esplanade, making it a popular gathering place.

The Swinburne Sarawak Experience

With 3,500 students representing 50 countries, the University has 20 years experience welcoming and providing tuition to students on its study abroad and exchange programme.

Location

Swinburne's Sarawak campus is located in Kuching, one of Southeast Asia's most liveable cities. A multicultural city, the locals are welcoming and friendly while the many international festivals held annually, and the city's proximity to nature offers more than just a globally recognised education.

Kuching has great connectivity to major cities in the region via flight – Kuala Lumpur, Kota Kinabalu and even Singapore is less than two hours away.

Safe and small

Kuching is a small and safe city with a vibrant community. It has a city vibe without being overwhelming so getting around via public transportation is very easy. If you are attracted to the lifestyle offered by a small city, mixed with a multicultural and diverse community, Kuching could be just what you're looking for.

Modern facilities

You'll enjoy access to our modern and fully-equipped on-campus facilities including a well-stocked library, lecture theatre and even a multi-purpose hall. Kuching itself offers residents venues that meets the needs for shopping, eating and entertainment. At Swinburne, we have great facilities for indoor and outdoor sports including basketball, squash, cricket and many more.

Cost of living

While Kuching is the capital city for Sarawak, it is also known to be one of the most affordable city in which to live. Offering residents a modern city vibe, this is an unbeatable lifestyle for study and work.

Study Abroad And Exchange at Swinburne Sarawak

When you do Exchange or Study Abroad at Swinburne, you not only study away from your home institution but will have many opportunity to soak up new culture and environment, while still earning credit towards your current degree.

Study Abroad Programme

Study Abroad is for students currently studying with a Swinburne partner institution or at other approved universities. Open to non-graduating students at the undergraduate and Masters level of study, you can join the programme for one semester or for one. Tuition fees are payable to Swinburne Sarawak and include insurance and student visa.

Study Abroad students may begin their studies in either Semester 1 or 2, and are required to take 3 to 4 units per semester as a full-time study load. At Swinburne Sarawak, you can study courses or modules from across all courses that are offered.

Exchange Program

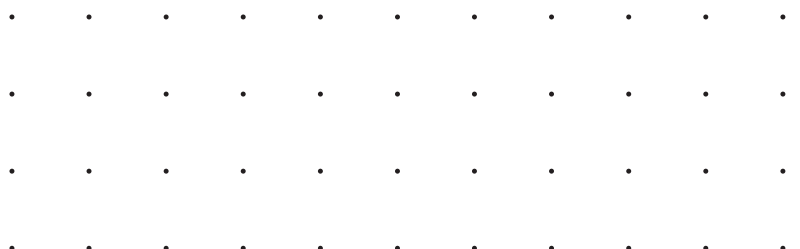

In partnership with universities worldwide, Swinburne Sarawak offers the International Exchange Programme. If you're a student at one of our international partner universities, you may be eligible to apply for exchange to Swinburne Sarawak. When you come as an exchange student, your tuition fees are paid to your home university while you study at Swinburne Sarawak.

As with the Study Abroad Programme, you can spend one semester or one year at Swinburne Sarawak.

Student Support

Arrival services: you may request for a pickup service prior to arriving at Kuching International Airport. To book this service, the Arrival Services Booking Form must be submitted to the University beforehand. This complimentary service will take you to your pre-arranged accommodation.

Orientation: all students are required to undergo orientation as this will equip you with all the information you'll need for a successful Study Abroad or Exchange experience. The orientation program is designed to provide you with an academic, social and cultural introduction to life at Swinburne and in Sarawak.

Buddy Program: to help you make a smooth transition into studying and living in Malaysia, Swinburne Sarawak has a program that connects Study Abroad and Exchange students with local students. Available upon request, we will pair you with a student currently studying at Swinburne prior to your departure to Kuching. This student will help answer any questions you may have before your arrival and will also show you around campus.

International student insurance cover: International students enrolled at Swinburne Sarawak are covered by a medical and health insurance policy throughout their period of study in Malaysia. This is a requirement of the Malaysian Ministry of Education. The insurance policy is undertaken by the University on behalf of the student, and the cost is included in your letter of offer.

Other services: Student Engagement provides a range of support and services to help students gain as much as possible from their time at Swinburne Sarawak.
