International Programs

Certificate Programs

UCLA Extension offers more than 40 F-1 visa-approved certificate programs that allow international students to study full time in Los Angeles, California. Certificate programs, which some universities call diploma programs, are an expertly designed sequence of courses related to a specialized field or topic. Many certificates offer the opportunity to remain in the U.S. for up to one year of work through Optional Practical Training, or OPT. Our Programs offer a practical, real-world approach to each field of study, so students can be best prepared for the next stage of their career.

Study Abroad at UCLA

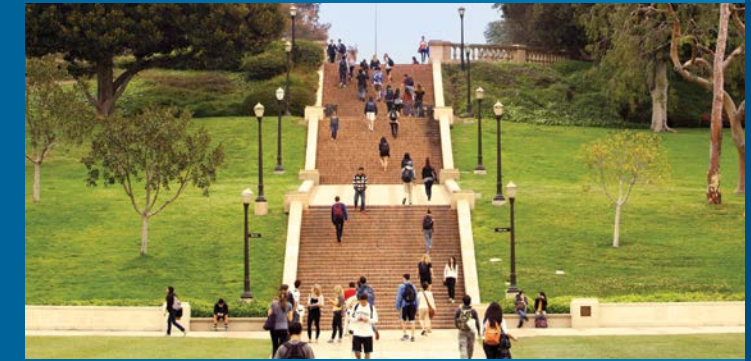

The Study Abroad at UCLA Program is designed for international students currently enrolled in a degree program, free-movers or those on a gap year looking to expand their horizons. This program is an excellent opportunity for international students who want to spend a quarter or more at a top-ranked U.S. university, and earn transferable academic credits at the undergraduate, post-baccalaureate and professional levels.

Online International Programs

UCLA Extension is home to hundreds of online courses and programs. With online learning through UCLA Extension, you can upgrade your current skills—or explore an entirely new area of interest—with flexibility and convenience.

“The UCLA courses I took were enriching and were taught by great professors. I’ve learned a lot during this quarter at UCLA, which will help with my future studies.”
